

POST PRODUCTION INTERNSHIP

➤ Viewpoint Creative, a nationally recognized advertising agency, is looking for Post Production intern applicants. If you are a college student who is interested in breaking into the world of post production, we would love to hear from you. This is a great chance for hands on post production and editorial experience. We're looking for a self-starter who is eager to learn, ready to work and become a valued member of our team. In return, we will provide you a structured course in editing, capturing, screening, transcoding, music searching, project management and final delivery quality control. When you finish up with us, you'll have a network quality spec spot to add to your reel, and the knowledge and confidence to step into an assistant role, maybe even with us!

Check out our work at www.viewpointcreative.com. If you think you'd make a good fit, read the full description below and apply at internship@viewpointcreative.com with the subject header 'Post Production Internship Application.'

REQUIREMENTS

- Must be for college credit
- Must have experience with Adobe Premiere and/or Avid Media Composer
- Must provide link to work samples / portfolio
- Adobe Creative Suite experience is preferred but not required

OVERVIEW OF INTERNSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Work with our team of editors to gain a better understanding of the complete post production process for national broadcast campaigns, network rebrands and sales/marketing sizzle videos.

Learn and assist with capture, transcoding, screening, music search, project organization, and final deliveries.

At the end of the term, you will have the opportunity to complete a spec project for your reel. This will be your work, completed to your satisfaction with our guidance and input.

You will receive an internal performance review.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

College seniors who will be getting credit for this internship, majoring in Communications with basic video production and editorial knowledge. An ideal candidate should stand out from the crowd and be a self-reliant, motivated problem solver with excellent communication skills.

We are only interested in team players that are professional, respectful, and passionate about learning the technical and creative editorial process.

A successful internship can lead to future opportunities.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Submit a cover letter and resume. Include internship availability (semester and date range) along with general availability to meet in person or by phone for an interview.

Please submit a link to samples of your editorial work.
